

CROSSES RIVER OF DEATH

Frank Bartl Dies This Morning

END CAME AT SIX O'CLOCK

After Long Suffering in Which Search for Re- lief Was Persistent

Frank W. Bartl, secretary and treasurer of the Bartl Brewing company, alderman of the Eleventh ward and president of the city council, died at 6 o'clock this morning at the family home, 1301 La Crosse street.

The end was peaceful, following a day and night of suffering such as often signifies the approach of the grim reaper in cases of tuberculosis. Members of the family were at the bedside during the last moments.

Mr. Bartl had been ill for two years. First indications of the dread disease which warranted him consulting a physician prompted a trip to Mexico and Cuba a year ago last winter. After three months in southern climes he returned home feeling greatly improved, and resumed the arduous duties of manager of the brewery.

The approach of another winter found his greatly weakened. Specialists were consulted but no hopes were held out for his recovery. The sick man realized the seriousness of his case but with fortitude suffered in silence, keeping the facts from the family. Along toward spring, however, his condition became so serious that finally he consented to lay aside business cares and go to Arizona. With a friend he established a camp in a mountainous district in that state and lived there until his return home a week ago.

Frank W. Bartl was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Bartl, pioneer residents of the city. He was born in this city 32 years ago, June 11, in the house which has since been his home.

Mr. Bartl early in life evinced a liking for a business life and when but a small boy rendered valuable assistance in the office of the brewery outside of school hours. He was educated in the Catholic and public schools of La Crosse and at Sacred Heart college at Prairie du Chien, finished his business education in the Wallace business college of this city.

Upon the completion of his education he assumed active management of the brewing business. The business grew and prospered under his management and soon reached large proportions. All credit for the building up of the trade is due to his untiring energy and sane business policies.

President Tells the Negroes Skilled Laborers Are Much Wanted.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
TUSKOGEE, Ala., Oct. 24.—The president arrived on the grounds of the institute after a short stay in town where he met the officials. At the school he rode in a carriage made by the students and drove around the grounds to the chapel where he spoke.

Addressing the negro students the president said in part: "To the white population as well as the black, it is of the utmost importance that the negro be encouraged to make himself the highest type of usefulness; common and skilled laborers are needed in the south and it is necessary to train every available man. "The professional and mercantile avenues to success are overcrowded. Ignorance is the costliest crop that can be raised in any part of this union. Despite all the white man does to aid you, there is no permanent help save as you develop capacity for self help. You, young men and women of Tuskegee, must lead your fellows toward sober, industrious and law-abiding lives."

"One must know one's own measure and keep it in view." Just to specify. YOU know how big your store is—you know its measure: Does anyone in the city think it a smaller store than it is? The chances are that if anyone does it is because you have been careless about keeping your store's measure "in view."

BRYAN AT RECEPTION FOR TOGO

Democratic Leader Figures in Big Fete at To- kio Today.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
TOKIO, Oct. 24.—W. J. Bryan was present at a reception in honor of Admiral Togo today. The mayor introduced Bryan to the admiral. The city's reception to the officers and men of Togo's fleet is a great public tribute. ## ROBBERS TERRORIZE VILLAGE

Wreck Bank of Rid- geville, Indiana.

WALK STREETS WITH GUNS

Defying Whole Town and Escape After Wound- ing Cashier.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
RIDGEVILLE, Ind., Oct. 24.—Burglars this morning blew the safe of the bank of Ridgeville, stole $6,000 and in a running battle with a posse of citizens, wounded the cashier. Two of the robbers were wounded.

For over an hour the town was at the mercy of the bandits, who walked the streets shooting at everything in sight, apparently taking their time about leaving.

The first charge of nitro-glycerine exploded at one o'clock and did little damage. The second, fifteen minutes later, aroused Cashier R. C. Branson, who ran to the street, but as soon as he appeared the bandit pickets fired and Branson returned to his home for a gun. He went to the home of President M. T. Sampson and the two turned in the fire alarm.

In the meantime the thieves had forced the doors of the safe and by the time the citizens were aroused the cracksmen had obtained their plunder. All the electric lights in the town were turned on. Citizens attempted to surround the robbers but they did not fear capture and deliberately walked the streets and shot out the lights.

Cashier Branson received a flesh wound on the head.

There were seven in the party and all escaped. They were heard to say Branson shot two of them.

TO ADJOURN COUN- CIL IN RESPECT TO ALD. BARTL

There will be no business transacted at the adjourned meeting of the common council this evening on account of the death of Alderman Frank Bartl the meeting will be adjourned soon after being called to order. The aldermen will remain in session only long enough to complete arrangements for attending the funeral, and no official business will be transacted by the council until after the last sad rites are concluded.

WEATHER AND WATER

Raw northeast wind with rain tonight; Wednesday rain and warmer.
The river will continue to rise.
Stage of water 6.0, a rise of .2 in 24 hours.
Highest temperature in 24 hours 52, lowest 36.

Just as it costs no more for a long trip on an up-to-date trolley car now than it used to for a short one on a horse car, so the modern store, which spends money for advertising, can sell goods more cheaply than the old-fashioned store which "saves the expense of advertising."

DRUGGISTS CASE DISMISSED TODAY

Old Test Case is Brought Before Judge Brindley This Morning.

On the charge of violating a state law which provides that no druggist shall allow a clerk who is not a registered pharmacist to sell poisonous drugs, three La Crosse druggists, C. L. Lien, F. W. Collier and John Kindley were arraigned before Judge Brindley this morning on complaint of A. F. Menges, member of the state board of health.

Menges in the role of a detective, discovered that at times when the proprietors of these three drug stores were absent their clerks, who are not registered pharmacists, have sold poisonous drugs.

In consideration of the fact that there were mitigating circumstances Mr. Menges and District Attorney Bosshard decided to waive prosecution, the cases being dismissed upon payment of costs, which amounted to three dollars for each defendant.

The case is about a year old, and as no arrests were made and the matter was of small importance it was dropped. Since the matter was first brought up the druggists in question have employed registered pharmacists it is understood.

HIS TESTIMONY AMOUNTS TO THE OLD FASHIONED "PRESTO-GONE" GAME

McClinton gave the history of the dividend system and offered what he called an explanation. When he got through Hughes asked:

"What does that mean?"

SURFACING OF THE SOUTHEASTERN ABOUT DONE

Construction of the La Crosse and Southeastern railroad has been practically completed. Most of the crew which has been engaged in surfacing for several months past has been laid off and all that remains to be done to complete the road is a little surfacing at Viroqua, the southern terminus.

You are not a "good manager" unless you are a regular reader of the store-ads., for your money will not "go" nearly so far if you are a little "rusty" on prices, and places and times to buy.

DEATH BY CARBOLIC ACID WAY

Wife of La Crosse Ball Player.

FOUND IN DEATH AGONY

At Dubuque Hotel Where She Worked--Suicide Probable Intent.

Mrs. George Klock, a domestic employed at the New Jefferson hotel in Dubuque, and wife of the La Crosse league ball player, is in the throes of death as a result of carbolic acid poisoning.

Whether the liquid was taken with suicidal intent or by accident is not known but the woman's husband, George Klock, states that his wife has been ill of late and that she took the acid by mistake. This is not the belief of others about the hotel where Mr. and Mrs. Klock reside.

Whether by mistake or with suicidal intent, the lady drank the acid from a two-ounce bottle in her room at the hotel Monday morning at ten o'clock. She was found by a domestic of the hotel and was suffering intense agony. The services of four physicians were required and for a time her condition did not yield to treatment. At noon, however, she was reported to be somewhat improved and there are now chances for her recovery. The amount of the deadly liquid taken is not known, but the indications are that the greater portion of the contents of the bottle were consumed.

Mrs. Klock is the wife of George Klock, a well known ball player. She is a resident of Bellevue, Ia., but went to Dubuque from La Crosse with her husband two weeks ago. They have since resided at the New Jefferson hotel, where she is employed. Mr. Klock spent some time in Dubuque this spring, after which he went to Galena, where he signed with an independent team. He later played with Freeport in the Wisconsin league and finished the season with the La Crosse team of the same league.

BOTH MEMBERS OF DR. FAVILLE'S CHURCH

APPLETON, Wis., 24.—Appleton people are much interested over the recent Peoria scandal as it has just been learned that Newton C. Dougherty and Oliver J. Bailey are members of Dr. John Faville's church. Dr. Faville was formerly pastor of the Congregational church here. Dougherty was superintendent of Dr. Faville's Sunday school while Bailey was one of the church's largest supporters.

Dr. John Faville is a brother of the Rev. Henry Faville of the First Congregational church of this city.

The flavor of much of the tobacco made now-a-days is produced by DOCTORING the leaf. Doctoring is a cheat and dangerous to the health of the smoker, but it costs the maker a whole lot less, it enables him to use the cheapest grade of tobacco. Red Feather Tobacco is absolutely free from all artificial flavoring. Its fine flavor and aroma is the result of a perfect blend of high grade leaf, cured by an entirely natural process.

FAMOUS MRS. WIGGS PLAYS HERE THIS EVENING.

What a role crowded with rich opportunity is that of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," and how fine a triumph it has been for Mrs. Madge Carr Cook—herself the mother of that genius-dowered star, Miss Robson—to create in that role a characterization which goes beyond the conception of the gifted story writer, and adds new sweetness and fresh, delicious humor. Mrs. Cook has made Mrs. Wiggs a familiar companion and friend to the play lovers of New York and Chicago who for hundreds of performances went and went again to revel in the oddities and the kindly fun of the "Cabbage Patch." Now Mrs. Wiggs, who always expressed a liking for travel, is "on the road," and will visit here tonight at the La Crosse theatre. She travels with her metropolitan company, and truly Miss Hazy, Mr. Stubbins, Little Tommy, Lovey Mary, Asia, Europa, and Australia—her "Jograhy"-named children—Chris Hazy of the peg-leg, Cuby, the "fit horse," and all the neighbors, make a very merry party. There is nothing stately or austere about Mrs. Wiggs, no glimpse of ankle, no swish of silk, no gust of Parisian perfume, but there is the splendid courage in adversity that has made such women in America mothers of heroes and statesmen; there is the sunniness of soul that makes a shanty more opulent in happiness than the palaces of princes, and that most golden gift of all—humor unfailing—whose quaint expression in delightful apothegms has made Mrs. Wiggs the favorite woman philosopher of literature. Prices 25c to $1.50.

RAJAH OF BONG DOES NOT RESORT TO HORSE-PLAY

One of the particularly bright features of the musical comedy, "The Rajah of Biong," which will have its first production at the La Crosse theatre Sunday, Oct. 29th, is the clear cut work of Mr. Budlong Meley, one of the leading comedians of the organization. Mr. Meley, while frequently leaning to the farcical, never descends to "horse play" but confines his laughter-producing efforts to legitimate and refined methods and thus gains applause from the critic's seat in

COUNCIL TO SPEND $40,- 000 FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Two New Bridges and the Cement Causeway to North Side Among the New Things Planned

Although there will be little paving work done by the city during the coming year considerable money will be spent on other highway improvements. The council last night in committee of the whole decided to bond the city for $40,000 to erect a new bridge over the La Crosse river, erect a brick paved steel viaduct over Rose street crossing, have the street car tracks on the causeway located in the middle of the thoroughfare and erect a tile sidewalk its entire length. Official action in accordance with these decisions will be taken at subsequent council meetings.

The council decided to kill the ordinance providing for the appointment of an electrical inspector.

The aldermen voted to lay the garbage plant proposition over for another year.

The board of public works recommended that the intake pipe be extended out into the river a distance to insure a better quality of water. At present water is being taken from just off the bank.

It was decided to continue the filling of wooden bridges on the pike to La Crescent.

The proposition to have permanent

A HIT.

What She Gained by Trying Again

A failure at first makes us esteem final success.

A family in Minn. that now enjoys Postum would never have known how good it is if the mother had been discouraged by the failure of her first attempt to prepare it. Her son tells the story:

"We had never used Postum food coffee till last spring (a year ago) when father brought home a package one evening just to try it. We had heard from our neighbors, and in fact every one who used it, how well they liked it, and that besides taking the place of coffee as a beverage it furnished a most nutritious and healthful article of food. So we were going to give it a trial.

"Well, the next morning mother brewed it about 5 minutes, just as she had been in the habit of doing with the other coffee, preparing it, I fear, without paying special attention to the directions printed on the package. It looked weak and didn't have a very promising color, but nevertheless father raised his cup with an air of expectancy. It certainly did give him a great surprise, but I'm afraid it wasn't a very pleasant one, for he put down his cup with a look of disgust and said Mother, are you sure this isn't your dish water?

"Mother wasn't discouraged though, and next morning gave it another trial, letting it stand on the stove till boiling began and then letting it boil for fifteen or twenty minutes, and this time we were all so pleased with it that we have used it ever since, and though we have a quantity of the old coffee in the house, I fear it will all be spoiled before we can get it used up.

"Father was a confirmed dyspeptic and a cup of coffee is to him like poison. So he never drinks it any more, but drinks Postum regularly. He isn't troubled with dyspepsia any more, and is actually growing fat, and I'm sure Postum is the cause of it. All the children are allowed to drink it and they are perfect pictures of health." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

BRINDLEY PLAYED GREAT FOOTBALL

Accounts of the football game between Chicago and Wisconsin Saturday give considerable credit to Thad Brindley of La Crosse for good work on the Badger team. Playing against Catlin, one of the strongest men on the opposing team and its captain, Brindley managed to more than hold his own at critical times during the game. The Chicago Record-Herald says of his work: "Brindley was one of the most valuable men on the Badger team. He not only played his position well, but recovered the ball several times after it had been fumbled."

TO MERCHANT ADVERTISERS.

It is of importance to every merchant in this city that he know as nearly as possible the relative circulations of the newspapers in which he advertises.

So far as the city is concerned, the most practical way of determining circulation is by a canvass of the entire city. This will eliminate the possibility of "padding."

We therefore make this offer to the La Crosse Retail Merchants' Association:

The Tribune will contribute to the Merchants' Association one-third (1-3) the expense of such a canvass, upon the following conditions:

A committee to have charge of the canvass shall be chosen at a regular meeting of the association, said committee to be elected, and not appointed by the chair.

The fact that said committee is to be elected shall be advertised in the daily papers at least one week prior to said meeting.

Said committee shall employ canvassers to make a systematic canvass of the city, and said canvassers shall report by blocks the exact number of subscribers each paper has in each and every block in the city.

Canvassers shall also make inquiry of subscribers as to whether they have ordered any papers coming to their homes, whether they read them, and expect to pay for them, and whether they have ordered any papers stopped that continue to come to their homes, and whether any such papers are "sample copies," or are delivered on approval.

Of course the Leader-Press and The Chronicle will agree to defray one-third each of this expense, so there should be no delay in causing the canvass to be made. Or perhaps they will decline, "for business reasons."

PROHIBITION AND PREVENTION.

The day of graft exposure has come. We have been living in that day these two years past. It is now about noon of that day and the work is well along. The lids are popping off with a rapidity that nearly clogs the avenues of publicity, and would clog the courts were the laws enforced.

Following the day of publicity, must come the day of remedy. Not merely that remedy incorporated in punishing the guilty—that is important, but subordinate to the great work of reconstruction that is shown to be imperative. Great work for great minds is being laid out in the exposures of today. The corrections of tomorrow must be effective and lasting if we are to preserve the democratic liberty of this people. We ask for a "square deal," and we make this pitiable appeal to men who have habitually stacked the cards on us. When we get a "square deal" from them, it will be because a stern and able-bodied "lookout" stands watchfully by.

Wanted—a remedy! And to be effective against graft and frenzied finance, the remedy must not only prohibit, but prevent.

A YEAR AND A HALF.

To the merchants of La Crosse who were instrumental in the starting of The Tribune, and to those who since that time have become friends and patrons of this paper, we ask you to look back over the past year and one half during which we have been publishing. The record is one in which every citizen can properly take pride.

The light and power monopoly has been broken, and today scores of men are busy in our streets making the final connections for a great new, modern and economical independent light and power plant that promises to save thousands of dollars annually to users of light and power.

The robber trading stamps have been swept out of the community by a crusade the call for which was issued in this paper.

The cost of public printing has been reduced materially in both city and county, and a conspiracy to control public printing contracts at outrageously high prices has been broken up.

An awakening to the right of the public to demand strict honesty and proper conduct in city administration has come and the public eye has been fixed on public official action with a keenness that promises to minimize grafting.

A movement to amalgamate all the civic bodies into an effective organization has been started, and will no doubt be consummated.

The Tribune did not do all these things unassisted, but it lent effective assistance to all of them, and many of them could not have been accomplished without the aid of a public spirited journal.

In these things The Tribune has become valuable to the merchants, and to the public in general; and because it has done them it has become valuable to the merchants in another way. Its stand in public matters long ago made it the most popular paper in La Crosse. As a natural consequence of this popularity, its circulation grew rapidly, and now it has acquired a subscription list that makes it the best advertising medium ever published in La Crosse. It goes to the people, and the people read it. They want it. If it is late, or a careless carrier skips someone, as will happen with a struggling new paper that has to pay its own way, the subscriber does not order his paper stopped. "Why didn't I get my paper?" that is what he asks. He wants you to be sure and get it to him tomorrow "It's the best paper in town," is the verdict of thousands. The working men of the city say it is; and the business people say it is. And a majority of our capitalists and real aristocrats say it is. They say so because it IS the best daily newspaper in La Crosse.

BUY HOME TOBACCO.

Another new La Crosse factory is placing its product upon the market. We refer to the Western Tobacco Works, occupying quarters on North Third street. This factory is making an excellent grade of smoking tobacco, and is the first manufactory of its sort in La Crosse.

Every La Crosse factory means something to every citizen of La Crosse, and every citizen of La Crosse should attempt to mean something to every La Crosse factory. We feel, therefore, that we are right in urging tobacco smokers to remember that Red Feather smoking tobacco

HER KINDERGARTEN DAYS.

With a little stub of pencil that I found upon the floor
Of the nursery where baby isn't playing any more,
I am scribbling out these verses in an eye-confusing maize,
Like the baby's hieroglyphics of her kindergarten days.

Fleeting Time has made a maiden of our babe of yesterday,
But in memory we behold her in those prattling years of play.
That is why my eyes are tear-dimmed, as I fondle with my gaze,
This old stub-pencil relic of her kindergarten days.

"Hello, papa!" I'm discovered! Stately maiden on the stair—
Still our baby (grown-up baby), with her mother's eyes and hair.
Little stub of tooth-marked pencil! In my chiffonier it lays,
Consecrated to remembrance of her kindergarten days.

—FANNY FAN.

co is MADE IN LA CROSSE. Try it! If it is as good as other tobacco, smoke it. Spend your money where it will remain in the community and may return to you some day. It may come back to you in wages, or in increase of property value. It is bound to contribute in some way to the growth of this city—your city.

When we learn the lesson of home patronage for home industries, we will have acquired the most valuable element in the science of city building.

Red Feather is handled through jobbers, those in the local field being J. J. Hogan, John C. Burns, La Crosse Grocery company, Adam Forscherler, Joseph Miller and Sietstad and Hogen. Schaldach and Koller handle it direct.

DEATH'S HAND FALLS HEAVILY.

Deep regret is felt in this city over the untimely death of Frank Bartl, president of the city council. He passed away in the midst of his usefulness, leaving the sorrow of hosts of friends and not an enemy behind him.

Frank Bartl was every inch a man. Keen and persevering, intelligent to a high degree, he was well on the voyage of a useful life. In another decade of usefulness, he would have been mentioned in history as one of the great old men of La Crosse; as it is, he will be remembered as one of its great young men.

Of lovable disposition, devoted to public duty, his integrity equal to his untiring activity, he made himself felt in the large affairs of the community. In the council he was always relied upon as an intelligent and stable man, and he was one of the most powerful forces that worked for the execution of the present policy of public improvements inaugurated under the mayorship of Dr. Anderson. His active and cheerful presence will be missed by the people of the community that loved him so well.

THE PASSING OF LA CROSSE FOOTBALL.

It is one of the things that we ought to regret in passing, that it has been demonstrated that this city cannot support a first class football team. Mr. Toland's announcement that with the Thanksgiving game of this year the W. B. U. eleven will close its career strikes us as a rebuke to this public, that has so little appreciated the expenditure that has maintained in La Crosse one of the best minor teams in the state. It was not the purpose of Mr. Toland that his team should make money, nor did he expect it to pay all its expenses; he was willing to contribute to its support. What he did want, and believed he should get, was a patronage that would so reduce the heavy expense of maintaining a first class team as to make his contribution a reasonable one. That is less than any school football team in the country expects of its gate receipts and it would seem that the La Crosse team should have had it. Had the team been poor and its exhibitions inferior, failure to patronize it would have been less unfortunate. On the contrary, the eleven is playing fast football, as its records show.

SEEK THE STRONG MAN.

It doesn't much matter who is to be the next La Follette candidate for governor, so far as the disposal of the "plum" goes. Any of a thousand people would be welcome to the "plum," pit, skin and all, if that would guarantee that the work of leveling the ramparts of Monopoly will go on.

But if we presume, as we are apt to do, that the La Follette candidate will be the next governor, the disposal of the "plum" becomes an important matter. There is no particular unkindness in presuming that in any event it will be "a limb of Caesar," but even so, it should be one of the strong limbs. No twig, to bend and snap with every pressure that is brought against it by the elements of Trustdom will fill the bill. A weak man succeeding La Follette will present a sorry spectacle when the agents of Special Privileges get through with him.

So it will be wise for the republicans in naming a candidate to consider all their strong men, and after carefully measuring them, select the strongest.

WHEAT

Since the publication of our last review, a number of important developments touching the Wheat situation have come to light. American Wheat is practically on a basis where exports may be made, but the shortage of cars to transport the grain to tidewater has proved a considerable obstacle to a free foreign movement. As a result, stocks have increased at several of the primary points, despite the normal foreign demand.

In the Northwest, however, the intense activity of the mills has a tendency to hold down undue accumulations, and the shipments of Flour are something tremendous. The speculative Wheat market is strongly supported on each decline by the most powerful interests in the trade. This support is given openly, but without any blare of trumpets. As a direct consequence of the stiffness in our markets, the foreigner has been obliged to come to us, and not we to him, as has been the custom in years past. Alarum rumors of locusts in the Wheat fields of Argentina have been published and denied several times. It may be that the insect pests will shorten the yield of that important country, but it is too early to make a definite statement on that subject. Disregarding the locust stories, we advise purchasers of Wheat on conditions which are more clearly legitimate.

GEORGE FLOTY, FAMOUS RIOT- ING SYRIAN, LEAVES THE CITY

George Floty, the terror of the Syrian settlement has left town bag and baggage and peace reigns in the Mill street settlement.

Records of the county court attest to the fact that Floty has figured in nearly every row in the Syrian quarter since he came to the city. Floty was a typical brigand in appearance, and seemed to delight in the fact that his looks and mien were so severe that all of his fellow countrymen feared him. Most of the quarrels Floty started himself, but if by some ill fortune he did not happen to be about when something was doing he made it his particular business to mix in as soon as he heard about it. Hence the frequent repetition of Floty's name on the county court records.

Upon telling the story of their venture to friends on the north side they were laughed at but when the paddle was shown, upon which the marks of the pickerel's teeth were plainly visible, all were bound to believe it. All previous records for fish stories are broken.

BANGOR WILL TAKE CONCORDIA'S HALL.

At the special meeting of the Bangor village council the body voted unanimously to accept the offer of the Concordia society to donate to the village the society's hall and grounds. The Concordia society submitted two propositions to the council, as a result of the conference held between the two bodies a few days ago. One proposal was to sell the property outright to the village unconditionally for the sum of $4,000, and the counter proposal was that the society donate the property to the village with the provision that the society be granted the privilege of holding their meetings and social gatherings in the hall. The board of trustees accepted the latter proposal by an unanimous vote, and negotiations will at once be entered into for the formal transfer of the property to the village.

The board will at once commence the alterations in the hall building to adapt it to the needs of the village. It is proposed that the basement of the building be used for a fire engine house and jail, for which later steel cages will be purchased, and the upper floor of the old portion of the building will be turned into office rooms for the clerk and other officials and a council chamber, while the main hall room will be used for general meeting purposes. The money derived from the sale of the village bonds will be expended in the reconstruction of the building and it is estimated that it will require about $2,000 to put the building in shape for the needs of the village and the remaining sum will be likely spent for permanent improvements.

Host Seeks Information.

Insurance Commissioner Host is sending out to all the state insurance departments a copy of the Wisconsin statement blank, including the gain and loss exhibit. At the recent annual convention of the insurance commissioners Mr. Host made a fight to have this gain and loss exhibit included in the standard blank, but the vote was a tie, and chairman decided against the motion. This was more votes than ever before had been mustered for the exhibit.

Mr. Host claims that the gain and loss exhibit would have shown up many of the evils of life insurance companies disclosed by recent investigations, and says: "The gain and loss exhibit requires no more than a disclosure of a company's methods. It is information to which the policyholder is entitled, and which he demands. Officers require this information for the proper guidance and conduct of the company. The maintenance of this exhibit in the annual accounting to policyholders, will bring about every needed reform in the business of life insurance."

Insurance Supt. Vandiver of Missouri will incorporate the gain and loss exhibit in the annual statement reports in his department hereafter, and it is believed a number of other states will follow his example.

Besides accurate revision of the songs, based largely on original text, the book contains notes explanatory of the history of the songs, and biographical sketches of the authors and composers.

ELK EATS ELK STEAK FRIED IN BUTTER IN THE WEST

As a charter member of the La Crosse lodge of Elks Sheriff Haugen had the honor of being invited to attend a genuine Elk spread at Big Timber, Mont., last Friday night. Mr. Haugen, who was there after a prisoner, accidentally stumbled onto one Cooper, owner of a coal mine, who is well known in La Crosse, having spent the summer of 1903 here.

Cooper is a prominent Elk, and out in the wilds of Montana fraternal brotherhood soon dominated. Cooper er had been there for several days and was cognizant of the fact that an elk had been killed in the mountain and that their landlord was saving a few choice steaks for the use of his family. A little earnest conversation with the landlord did the business and the two Elks sat down to a spread that might fit for a king. Elk's steak fried in butter Sheriff Haugen reports is the finest dish he ever tackled. The meat literally melted in his mouth, he said. The sheriff thinks he is an Elk for fair now.

Indians at Murder Trial

WAUPACA, Wis., Oct. 24.—A large number of Indians from the Wittenberg reservation are here to attend the trial of Sam Blowsnake and the other two Indians who are held as accessories to the murder and robbery of Kickapoo Shabodock, a wealthy land owner and stockman of the Wittenberg tribe of Indians, who reside in the northwest part of this county. Kickapoo Shabodock was murdered in 1903 and robbed of $700. The trial probably will take up some time, as the accused men speak little English. They have been in custody here since last March.
